After racist cops gun down youth
Rebellion in Milwaukee

By Workers World Staff

Aug. 15 — As part of the ongoing international resistance against police terror, youth rose up in rebellion in Milwaukee the evening of Aug. 13 and again the following night.

After a cop gunned down 23-year-old Sylville Smith on the evening of Aug. 13 and again the following night.

An Aug. 14 Coalition for Justice statement reads: “What happened last night was not the result of greed or an ignorant display of anger as some have called it, but rather pain and frustration built up from over 400 years of oppression. ... We are one of the most segregated cities in the United States. We are the worst city for Black children to grow up in. We are a city of inequities, of under-education, of unemployment, of oppression, of drug abuse, of violence.” (facebook.com/justicefordontre)

Members of the Coalition for Justice joined the Aug. 14 protest march and did volunteer work, along with others, to clean up the neighborhood.

Like across the United States and similarly in Latin America, the Caribbean and other locations in the Western Hemispheres, present-day conditions in Wisconsin for people of African descent are rooted in slavery.

The right to rebel

In Madison and Milwaukee, in particular, the U.S. capitalist system has imposed some of the worst apartheid-like, genocidal conditions in the U.S. on the Black community.

Members of the Madison-based Young Gifted and Black Coalition and of Freedom Inc. have given testimony before a United Nations human rights panels exposing these conditions.

People of African descent in Wisconsin have always

Continued on page 4

Cleveland Pride carries on
Southern Workers’ School
NYC activists: ‘Abolish police!’

WWP ELECTION CAMPAIGN

- Baltimore: Cop report ‘nothing new’
- Moorehead and Lilly in California
- Honoring Fidel at 90

ANC and S. Africa elections
Palestinian political prisoner
Brigade reaffirms solidarity with Cuba

By Ellie Dorritie, Buffalo, N.Y.

The 47th Venceremos Brigade returned from Cuba by marching across the Peace Bridge, which links Fort Erie, Canada, with Buffalo, N.Y., on Aug. 8. In making the trip, the members defied the continuing U.S. restrictions on travel to that socialist country. Chanting “We’re gonna end this travel ban!” they were met in Erie, Canada, with Buffalo, N.Y., on Aug. 8. In making the trip, the members defied the continuing U.S. restrictions on travel to that socialist country. Chanting “We’re gonna end this travel ban!” they were met in Erie, Canada, with Buffalo, N.Y., on Aug. 8.

In a joint statement with IFCO/Pastors for Peace Cuba Travel Challenge, the National Network on Cuba, Workers World Party, the Latin America Solidarity Committee, the Canadian-Cuban Friendship Association Niagara and the International Action Center, the organizers made nice with the Cleveland Police Department, but many participants knew that we must organize ourselves to defend ourselves and our interests.

Hate capitalism! Workers World Party fights for a socialist society — where the wealth is socially owned and workers are planners to truly human needs. This outdated capitalist system is dragging down workers’ living standards while throwing millions out of their jobs. If you’re young, you know they’re stealing your future. And capitalism is threatening the entire planet with its unplanned, profit-driven stranglehold on the means of production.

Workers built it all — it belongs to society, not to a handful of billionaires! But we need a revolution to make that change. That’s why for 57 years WWP has a long history of militant opposition to imperialism. The billionaire rulers are bent on turning back the clock to the bad old days before socialist revolts and national liberation struggles liberated territory from their grip. We’ve been in the streets to oppose every one of imperialism’s wars and aggressions.

Contact a Workers World Party branch near you:

National Office 147 W. 24th St. 2nd Fl., New York, NY 10011 212.627.2994 wwp@workers.org

Atlanta PO Box 18123 Atlanta, GA 30316 404.627.0185 atwework.org

Baltimore c/o Solidarity Center 2115 N. Charles St. Baltimore, MD 21218 443.221.3775 Baltimore@workers.org

Cleveland P.O. Box 596 Cleveland, OH 44101 216.739.0320 cleveland@workers.org

Denver denver@workers.org

Detroit 5920 Second Ave. Detroit, MI 48202 313.459.0770 detroit@workers.org

Durham N.C. 804 Old Fayetteville St. Durham, NC 27701 919.322.9976 durham@workers.org

Huntington, W. Va. huntingtonwv@workers.org

Houston P.O. Box 3454 Houston, TX 77253-3454 713.503.2630 houston@workers.org

Lexington, KY lexington@workers.org

Los Angeles 5278 W Pico Blvd Los Angeles, CA 90019 la@workers.org 323.306.6240

Milwaukee, Wisc. milwaukee@workers.org

Philadelphia P.O. Box 3428 Philadelphia, PA 19101 215.731.3818 philadelphia@workers.org

Pittsburgh pittsburgh@workers.org

San Francisco, Calif. sanfrancisco@workers.org

San Diego P.O. Box 33447 San Diego, CA 92138 san Diego@workers.org

Tucson, Ariz. tucson@workers.org

Washington, D.C. WWP PHOTO: SUSAN SCHNUR

Employees School lifts up Southern organizing

WW PHOTO: BERTA JOUBERT-CECI

ANC retains majority in S. Africa vote

Workers World (ISSN-1070-4205) is published weekly without royalty provided this notice is preserved. Subscription information is available on the Web at www.workers.org. Periodical postage paid at New York, N.Y. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to Workers World, 147 W. 24th St. 2nd Fl., New York, NY 10011.
The Equality for Flatbush Project (E4F), a people-of-color-led, multi-ethnic grassroots organization which defends Black community from police repression, affordable housing and anti-gentrification organizing in the Flatbush and East Flatbush sections of Brooklyn, organized a march and rally on Aug. 2.

E4F is working on 11 campaigns through volunteer power. This is the first large march and rally organized by the organization this year, after the first time a march has happened connecting police violence, racism and gentrification in our neighborhood.

Some 250 people from all over Brooklyn brazen the scorching heat to march in the sun, but hundreds more participated beforehand in this effort. These included many people who went door-to-door to get endorsers from businesses, who then put up flyers for the march, and all the folks who went door to door and putting up signs in the early morning.

So when the New York Police Department and the NYC Department of Parks & Recreation decided to stop the march by denying permits, the onslaught of community support for two days, both through social media and with phone calls, forced them to issue permits.

The rally was held under the shade of the trees in Prospect Park, so people could sit and be fully engaged — versus suffering in the heat. It was co-chaired by this writer and Zakaiyah Sayered, a leader of the Brooklyn Anti-gentrification Network. Speakers included Alicia Boyd, founder of Movement to Protect the People; Elizabeth C. Yeampierre, of UPROSE; Bisii Leraaboebui, executive director of the Brooklyn Anti-Gentrification Network; Imani House; Christine Lewis, leader of Domestic Workers United; Noha Arafa, lawyer and activist with New Yorkers Against Bratton; Michael Higgins, director of Families United for Racial & Economic Equality; as well as community organizers from Bushwick, Brooklyn, Jamaica, Queens and elsewhere who took the stage to talk about issues happening in their neighborhoods.

Ryan Richardson and Michael “Zigg” Miller, both part of the leadership of E4F, talked about components of the newly launched Real Estate Watch Project of the E4F Investigative Research Team, who is looking into greed, light-speed redevelopment and developers accountable by providing information and tools to empower residents.

Nabil Hassine, of Millions March NYC, took the microphone away from the very impressive out that occupation at #AbolitionSquare, formerly known as New York City Hall Park, to announce a rally at #AbolitionHallNYC started on Aug. 1. That is the kind of direct action and occupation that led to the resignation of William Bratton on commissioner on Aug. 2.

Visits to enemy territory

The march stepped off from the park with the goal of “Urban Abolition” and gentrification and police repression along the way. First stop was the infamous 23-story luxury development at 626 Flatbush Ave. On Aug. 2 the New York Police Department started an arrest and transport of any misdoings, and the community was not quiet about the charges were dropped against the police on Aug. 2.

Some 250 people from all over Brooklyn, NYC, and East Flatbush sections of Brooklyn, Science and Technology High School, and the Brooklyn Youth Cyclery, gathered here for the Southern Workers Assembly, which has been building the Southern Workers Assembly movement and organizing for the last few years.

The Southern Workers Assembly has organized a march and rally on Aug. 13. At the rally, revolutionary socialist candidates Andre Powell and Sharon Black, are calling for the disarming, divestment and disbanding of racist police. These immediate steps are necessary.

The rally was held under the shade of the trees in Prospect Park, so people could sit and be fully engaged — versus suffering in the heat. It was co-chaired by this writer and Zakaiyah Sayered, a leader of the Brooklyn Anti-gentrification Network. Speakers included Alicia Boyd, founder of Movement to Protect the People; Elizabeth C. Yeampierre, of UPROSE; Bisii Leraaboebui, executive director of the Brooklyn Anti-Gentrification Network; Imani House; Christine Lewis, leader of Domestic Workers United; Noha Arafa, lawyer and activist with New Yorkers Against Bratton; Michael Higgins, director of Families United for Racial & Economic Equality; as well as community organizers from Bushwick, Brooklyn, Jamaica, Queens and elsewhere who took the stage to talk about issues happening in their neighborhoods.

Ryan Richardson and Michael “Zigg” Miller, both part of the leadership of E4F, talked about components of the newly launched Real Estate Watch Project of the E4F Investigative Research Team, who is looking into greed, light-speed redevelopment and developers accountable by providing information and tools to empower residents.

Nabil Hassine, of Millions March NYC, took the microphone away from the very impressive out that occupation at #AbolitionSquare, formerly known as New York City Hall Park, to announce a rally at #AbolitionHallNYC started on Aug. 1. That is the kind of direct action and occupation that led to the resignation of William Bratton on commissioner on Aug. 2.

Visits to enemy territory

The march stepped off from the park with the goal of “Urban Abolition” and gentrification and police repression along the way. First stop was the infamous 23-story luxury development at 626 Flatbush Ave. On Aug. 2 the New York Police Department started an arrest and transport of any misdoings, and the community was not quiet about the charges were dropped against the police on Aug. 2.

Some 250 people from all over Brooklyn, NYC, and East Flatbush sections of Brooklyn, Science and Technology High School, and the Brooklyn Youth Cyclery, gathered here for the Southern Workers Assembly, which has been building the Southern Workers Assembly movement and organizing for the last few years.

The Southern Workers Assembly has organized a march and rally on Aug. 13. At the rally, revolutionary socialist candidates Andre Powell and Sharon Black, are calling for the disarming, divestment and disbanding of racist police. These immediate steps are necessary.

E4F marches against cops and gentrification

By Imani Henry

Brooklyn, N.Y.

The Equality for Flatbush Project (E4F), a people-of-color-led, multi-ethnic grassroots organization which defends Black community from police repression, affordable housing and anti-gentrification organizing in the Flatbush and East Flatbush sections of Brooklyn, organized a march and rally on Aug. 2.

E4F is working on 11 campaigns through volunteer power. This is the first large march and rally organized by the organization this year, after the first time a march has happened connecting police violence, racism and gentrification in our neighborhood.

Some 250 people from all over Brooklyn brazen the scorching heat to march in the sun, but hundreds more participated beforehand in this effort. These included many people who went door-to-door to get endorsers from businesses, who then put up flyers for the march, and all the folks who went door to door and putting up signs in the early morning.

So when the New York Police Department and the NYC Department of Parks & Recreation decided to stop the march by denying permits, the onslaught of community support for two days, both through social media and with phone calls, forced them to issue permits.

The rally was held under the shade of the trees in Prospect Park, so people could sit and be fully engaged — versus suffering in the heat. It was co-chaired by this writer and Zakaiyah Sayered, a leader of the Brooklyn Anti-gentrification Network. Speakers included Alicia Boyd, founder of Movement to Protect the People; Elizabeth C. Yeampierre, of UPROSE; Bisii Leraaboebui, executive director of the Brooklyn Anti-Gentrification Network; Imani House; Christine Lewis, leader of Domestic Workers United; Noha Arafa, lawyer and activist with New Yorkers Against Bratton; Michael Higgins, director of Families United for Racial & Economic Equality; as well as community organizers from Bushwick, Brooklyn, Jamaica, Queens and elsewhere who took the stage to talk about issues happening in their neighborhoods.

Ryan Richardson and Michael “Zigg” Miller, both part of the leadership of E4F, talked about components of the newly launched Real Estate Watch Project of the E4F Investigative Research Team, who is looking into greed, light-speed redevelopment and developers accountable by providing information and tools to empower residents.

Nabil Hassine, of Millions March NYC, took the microphone away from the very impressive out that occupation at #AbolitionSquare, formerly known as New York City Hall Park, to announce a rally at #AbolitionHallNYC started on Aug. 1. That is the kind of direct action and occupation that led to the resignation of William Bratton on commissioner on Aug. 2.

Visits to enemy territory

The march stepped off from the park with the goal of “Urban Abolition” and gentrification and police repression along the way. First stop was the infamous 23-story luxury development at 626 Flatbush Ave. On Aug. 2 the New York Police Department started an arrest and transport of any misdoings, and the community was not quiet about the charges were dropped against the police on Aug. 2.

Some 250 people from all over Brooklyn, NYC, and East Flatbush sections of Brooklyn, Science and Technology High School, and the Brooklyn Youth Cyclery, gathered here for the Southern Workers Assembly, which has been building the Southern Workers Assembly movement and organizing for the last few years.

The Southern Workers Assembly has organized a march and rally on Aug. 13. At the rally, revolutionary socialist candidates Andre Powell and Sharon Black, are calling for the disarming, divestment and disbanding of racist police. These immediate steps are necessary.

Black: Police are an occupying army...
Abolition Square action says: ‘Abolish police’

By Sara Flounders

Abolish the police! A revolutionary concept has sprouted organically from the intense ferment and combative spirit of the Black Lives Matter movement.

Grassroots encampments in three cities challenge the vicious defenders of racism and class rule at the roots.

They renamed City Hall Park here “Abolition Square” and focused the occupation on a world without police and state terror. They have kept this territory liberated since Aug. 1, defying an extreme heat wave.

This occupation is part of a national effort, including Chicago and Los Angeles, that focuses on the current and historic role of systematic police terror in maintaining white supremacy.

Colin Ashley, a People’s Power Assembly organizer, said since Day 1 a part of the logistics team, which helps pull together food supplies, cleanup, nightly housing, classes, workshops and cultural programs. Ashley was helping to set up the daily dinner at Abolition Square on Day 12 while filling in WW: “Outrivers are continuing to engage in a conversation dedicated to the question of abolishing the police and prisons and what we are going to take to get this. We are discussing strategic ways of doing community outreach, as well as ways of maintaining links with the multiple groups that have shown solidarity with Abolition Square.”

New tactics to heighten demands

Ashley summarized three major accomplishments of the occupation: “First, activists have created a solid foundation for a coalition of grassroots organizations dedicated to Police Abolition as a radical vision.”

Second, groups and individuals have created workshops on self-defense, copwatch and know your rights. Third, the occupation has also become a center for historical and political workshops on such varied topics as the History of White Supremacy, Black and Native Solidarity, and Immigration, Imperialism, Global Political Prisoners, Queer Liberation as an Anti-Police Movement. The workshops held here at Abolition Square can be reproduced around the city.

“In undertaking this occupation we have taken into what is seemingly a na-tive Black Lives Matter movement desire to diversify tactics as well as escalate demands.”

Flyers handed out at the occupation are titled “Abolish White Supremacy, Abolish the Police.” They proclaim: “If we are serious about ending white supremacy, then we need radical change. It is time to re-imagine security in our communities.”

“The demands of the occupation are:

2. Invest in Black Futures! Defund the NYPD’s $5.5 billion budget and invest in Black and Brown communities.

3. Reparations for all victims of police violence from the NYPD budget.

On Day 2 of the occupation, hate Police Commissioner Bill Bratton announced he was stepping down. But no announcement was made ending the vicious police policy known as “broken windows” that he initiated.

Principles of unity

An Orientation Guide explains why the action was called and why raising demands for abolition and not reform of the police and prison system is the way forward for the Black Lives Matter movement.

The guide explains that no amount of body cameras or retraining will change the racist, violent nature of the police. Such fake reforms further increase the budget and the power of racist NYPD, it says.

The guide lists principles to give examples of how people are able to organize themselves socially without police intervention. These principles include no co-operation with or involvement of NYPD or any law enforcement entity and no closed-door discussions with politicians. No physical or mental harm to others. Sexual violence, including harassment, will be dealt with swiftly.

Nate Peters, a People’s Power Assembly organizer, who has a daily presence at the encampment, told WW: “Abolition Square has drawn a line in the sand: The police are an inherently racist and brutal institution. If we want to abolish police brutality, then we must abolish the police.”

This revolutionary demand and the courageous activists who have raised it demand our support from the entire Left and workers’ political movement.

Many different kinds of active support are needed, especially needed at the time of the encampment during the day, especially morning shifts, is especially helpful. Also bringing food and supplies and participating in workshops and classes. Supporters everywhere can spread the word and share the message — Abolish the Police.

For more information, follow #ShutDownCityHallNYC and #AbolitionSquare on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

Abolition Square in rebellion after cops gun down youth

Community in rebellion after cops gun down youth

Continued from page 1

faced oppression and super-exploitation. But over the past 40 years, they have faced increasing terrorist assaults by Wall Street forces and their political servants. These assaults have increased rapidly since 2011 under Gov. Walker and the right-wing-controlled Wisconsin legislature.

Between the 1930s and 1950s, tens of thousands of people of African descent moved from southern states to Milwaukee for employment in the numerous, sprawling industrial plants in the city. Even though many were occupationally segregated, they were in union plants. Homeownership in the Black community in Milwaukee was high and often passed from generation to generation.

With capitalists purposefully moving many plants out of the North side of Mil-waukee in the late 1970s and early 1980s, along with legislation like the so-called North American Free Trade Act, devastat- ing union followed in Black communities, leading to today’s increasingly asbestos conditions. Many Black neighborhoods in Milwaukee now resemble areas in Detroit and other Midwestern cities with large Black populations that have been deci- mated by the policies of Wall Street banks and corporations.

Over the past 10 years alone, there have been at least 20,000 foreclosures in Milwaukee, most in the Black community.

Black people are 240,000 out of a total city population of 600,000.

The right-wing, Milwaukee-based Brad- ley Foundation has spent millions of dollars to defuse to shred such social safety nets as unemployment insurance and welfare benefits.

The people are fed up, and the people are demanding their freedom.

The Coalition for Justice wrote on Aug. 14: “What happened last night was a coup and an outrage, not just a distor- bance. The media has no problem to clas- sify us as thugs… The people are angry. The people are fed up, and the people are demanding their freedom.”

The Black youth of Milwaukee have the right to rebel against genocidal condi- tions! Resistance is justified from Africa to Palestine to the US. Milwaukee Black and Na- tional Guard occupiers out of Milwaukee now! Stop the War on Black America! For more information, updates and how to support, see www.facebook.com/ justicefordonette.
By Judy Greenspan
Sacramento, Calif.

At this year’s Peace and Freedom Party convention, held Aug. 12-14 in Sacramento, Calif., delegates were reminded of their party’s early and rich anti-racist history and the need to head their ticket.

Constitutional amendment to recognize Black Lives Matter

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today is support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.

The convention began Friday night with speeches from the four presidential candidates: Monica Moorehead and Lilly for WWP; Gloria La Riva for the Party for Socialism and Liberalism; Lynch Kahn, an independent; and Laura Wells representing the Green Party. The remaining candidates for today’s support for the Black Lives Matter movement, and Monica and Lamont have done a tremendous job of supporting that movement in the last decade.
Plasma centers exploit poor people for profit

By Randy Nord

Plasma donation centers may seem like an innocent way to earn extra income while contributing to a positive cause. Plasma is used to create lifesaving medical treatments for patients with hemophilia and other disorders. But a deeper look shows that pharmaceutical manufacturers exploit these centers in a purely profit-driven manner. In this article, we will explore the inner workings of plasma donation centers and discuss how they profit from the poor.

Workers School

Continued from page 3

Working-class people have been at the forefront of labor organizing campaigns for centuries. The workers who gather in Flatbush and East Flatbush, protesters witnessed the harassment of a Caribbean woman vendor by the police. For weeks, Evon has been working with this group, a coalition of maj- ority women-of-color vendors who sell fruit, cold water, snow cones and jewelry at the street corner. The group has been collecting tickets and lining up civil rights attorneys Moira Meltzer-Cohen to meet with the vendors. Evon is also planning to hold a meeting in the neighborhood. The NYC police are known for their brutality towards Black and Latino communities.

Brooklyn, N.Y.
March against cops and gentrification

Continued from page 3

Cops kill Black and Latino people. When they do, they are not held accountable. This is why we need to organize and fight for change. The march in Flatbush was a testament to the power of the working class.

Plasma donation centers are not charitable organizations. They are for-profit businesses that exploit the poor in order to make a profit. Plasma centers pay donors to give their plasma, which is used to create medical treatments. However, the plasma centers do not offer any compensation to the donors. In fact, donors are not even compensated for their time. This is why it is important to organize against plasma donation centers and fight for a better future for all people.
La finalidad de las recientes elecciones en África Occidental fue la predominación del ANC en la región. A pesar de las presiones económicas, el ANC ha logrado mantener su mayoría en la región.

ROLE OF CORPORATE & GOVERNMENT MEDIA

Los medios corporativos y gubernamentales han jugado un papel crucial en la elección del ANC. El contexto de la economía africana ha sido severo, pero el ANC ha logrado consolidar su mayoría en el país. La situación económica ha sido un factor determinante en la elección del ANC.

Beyond economic strains

A pesar de las presiones económicas, el ANC ha logrado mantener su mayoría en la región. La situación económica ha sido un factor determinante en la elección del ANC.
Por Sara Flounders

El ejército estadounidense reanudó el bombardeo contra el país norte africano de Libia el martes, un año después de que el Congreso fue obligado a pasar por alto la autoridad de la Asamblea General de las Naciones Unidas para aprobar el uso de la fuerza en Libia.

La guerra EUA/OTAN contra Libia en 2011 arrancó hace poco más de 15 meses - de marzo a octubre - los aviones de combate aliados en todos los países libios negros y los trabajadores del África Subsahariana. Y se planean más bases.

En el avión causado por esa dislocación social y destructiva extremas, las fuerzas más extremas y fanáticas, luchadores y rebeldes árabes que serían equipados por Arabia Saudita, Qatar, Isra- el y las fuerzas de operaciones especiales de Estados Unidos -más europeas, aunque hay fuerzas con la misma filosofía amplia.

La existencia del EUA en Libia, Siria y en otros lugares está causada por la guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó del brutal linchamiento de Gadafi en Sirte, ella aplaudió, se rió y le dijo a una report- er de CNN: “Armara rebeldes sirius y usar poder aéreo occidental . . . en un esfuerzo de bajo costo y alto impacto”.

El actual gobierno de la Gran Yamahiriya Árabe Libia que transformó a Libia, que pasó a llamarse el actual Gobierno de Acuerdo Nacional de Libia. El actual Gobierno de Acuerdo Nacional de Libia prosperó, a pesar de décadas de sanciones imperialistas occidentales de petróleo y gas. Es tiempo de dar crédito a quien crédito merece.

Por Deirdre Griswold

El gobierno de Li- bya es un país de abundancia, de grandes riquezas, de grandes espacios. Sin embargo, se ha hecho en este país para mejorar, o incluso mantener, los sistemas de transporte públicos, especialmente cuando una ciudad ya existe, es enormemente difícil y caro desenterrar las cajas con alta rentabilidad. Por eso la economía actual de Libia, en el país de marcha en toda la región. Cada institución social importa en los campos de desarrollo de in- fraestructura moderna de la ONU mues- tra que los autores de esta guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó de que las fuerzas de operaciones especiales de Estados Unidos -más europeas, aunque hay fuerzas con la misma filosofía amplia.

La existencia del EUA en Libia, Siria y en otros lugares está causada por la guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó del brutal linchamiento de Gadafi en Sirte, ella aplaudió, se rió y le dijo a una report- er de CNN: “Armara rebeldes sirius y usar poder aéreo occidental . . . en un esfuerzo de bajo costo y alto impacto”.

El actual gobierno de la Gran Yamahiriya Árabe Libia que transformó a Libia, que pasó a llamarse el actual Gobierno de Acuerdo Nacional de Libia prosperó, a pesar de décadas de sanciones imperialistas occidentales de petróleo y gas. Es tiempo de dar crédito a quien crédito merece.

Por Deirdre Griswold

El gobierno de Li- bya es un país de abundancia, de grandes riquezas, de grandes espacios. Sin embargo, se ha hecho en este país para mejorar, o incluso mantener, los sistemas de transporte públicos, especialmente cuando una ciudad ya existe, es enormemente difícil y caro desenterrar las cajas con alta rentabilidad. Por eso la economía actual de Libia, en el país de marcha en toda la región. Cada institución social importa en los campos de desarrollo de in- fraestructura moderna de la ONU mues- tra que los autores de esta guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó de que las fuerzas de operaciones especiales de Estados Unidos -más europeas, aunque hay fuerzas con la misma filosofía amplia.

La existencia del EUA en Libia, Siria y en otros lugares está causada por la guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó del brutal linchamiento de Gadafi en Sirte, ella aplaudió, se rió y le dijo a una report- er de CNN: “Armara rebeldes sirius y usar poder aéreo occidental . . . en un esfuerzo de bajo costo y alto impacto”.

El actual gobierno de la Gran Yamahiriya Árabe Libia que transformó a Libia, que pasó a llamarse el actual Gobierno de Acuerdo Nacional de Libia prosperó, a pesar de décadas de sanciones imperialistas occidentales de petróleo y gas. Es tiempo de dar crédito a quien crédito merece.

Por Deirdre Griswold

El gobierno de Li- bya es un país de abundancia, de grandes riquezas, de grandes espacios. Sin embargo, se ha hecho en este país para mejorar, o incluso mantener, los sistemas de transporte públicos, especialmente cuando una ciudad ya existe, es enormemente difícil y caro desenterrar las cajas con alta rentabilidad. Por eso la economía actual de Libia, en el país de marcha en toda la región. Cada institución social importa en los campos de desarrollo de in- fraestructura moderna de la ONU mues- tra que los autores de esta guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó de que las fuerzas de operaciones especiales de Estados Unidos -más europeas, aunque hay fuerzas con la misma filosofía amplia.

La existencia del EUA en Libia, Siria y en otros lugares está causada por la guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó del brutal linchamiento de Gadafi en Sirte, ella aplaudió, se rió y le dijo a una report- er de CNN: “Armara rebeldes sirius y usar poder aéreo occidental . . . en un esfuerzo de bajo costo y alto impacto”.

El actual gobierno de la Gran Yamahiriya Árabe Libia que transformó a Libia, que pasó a llamarse el actual Gobierno de Acuerdo Nacional de Libia prosperó, a pesar de décadas de sanciones imperialistas occidentales de petróleo y gas. Es tiempo de dar crédito a quien crédito merece.

Por Deirdre Griswold

El gobierno de Li- bya es un país de abundancia, de grandes riquezas, de grandes espacios. Sin embargo, se ha hecho en este país para mejorar, o incluso mantener, los sistemas de transporte públicos, especialmente cuando una ciudad ya existe, es enormemente difícil y caro desenterrar las cajas con alta rentabilidad. Por eso la economía actual de Libia, en el país de marcha en toda la región. Cada institución social importa en los campos de desarrollo de in- fraestructura moderna de la ONU mues- tra que los autores de esta guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó de que las fuerzas de operaciones especiales de Estados Unidos -más europeas, aunque hay fuerzas con la misma filosofía amplia.

La existencia del EUA en Libia, Siria y en otros lugares está causada por la guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó del brutal linchamiento de Gadafi en Sirte, ella aplaudió, se rió y le dijo a una report- er de CNN: “Armara rebeldes sirius y usar poder aéreo occidental . . . en un esfuerzo de bajo costo y alto impacto”.

El actual gobierno de la Gran Yamahiriya Árabe Libia que transformó a Libia, que pasó a llamarse el actual Gobierno de Acuerdo Nacional de Libia prosperó, a pesar de décadas de sanciones imperialistas occidentales de petróleo y gas. Es tiempo de dar crédito a quien crédito merece.

Por Deirdre Griswold

El gobierno de Li- bya es un país de abundancia, de grandes riquezas, de grandes espacios. Sin embargo, se ha hecho en este país para mejorar, o incluso mantener, los sistemas de transporte públicos, especialmente cuando una ciudad ya existe, es enormemente difícil y caro desenterrar las cajas con alta rentabilidad. Por eso la economía actual de Libia, en el país de marcha en toda la región. Cada institución social importa en los campos de desarrollo de in- fraestructura moderna de la ONU mues- tra que los autores de esta guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó de que las fuerzas de operaciones especiales de Estados Unidos -más europeas, aunque hay fuerzas con la misma filosofía amplia.

La existencia del EUA en Libia, Siria y en otros lugares está causada por la guerra en Libia. Cuando se le informó del brutal linchamiento de Gadafi en Sirte, ella aplaudió, se rió y le dijo a una report- er de CNN: “Armara rebeldes sirius y usar poder aéreo occidental . . . en un esfuerzo de bajo costo y alto impacto”.

El actual gobierno de la Gran Yamahiriya Árabe Libia que transformó a Libia, que pasó a llamarse el actual Gobierno de Acuerdo Nacional de Libia prosperó, a pesar de décadas de sanciones imperialistas occidentales de petróleo y gas. Es tiempo de dar crédito a quien crédito merece.

Por Deirdre Griswold

El gobierno de Li- bya es un país de abundancia, de grandes riquezas, de grandes espacios. Sin embargo, se ha hecho en este país para mejorar, o incluso mantener, los sistemas de transporte públicos, especialmente cuando una ciudad ya existe, es enormemente difícil y caro desenterrar las cajas con alta rentabilidad. Por eso la economía actual de Libia, en el país de marcha en toda la región. Cada institución social importa en los campos de desarrollo de in- fraestructura moderna de la ONU mues-